

Angel Ward

Angel came to the Harbor when she was 11 years old. During the seven years that Angel lived at the Harbor she was a member of the Harbor basketball and volleyball teams, and worked on campus at the Harbor during her junior and senior year of high school.

At La Porte High School, Angel maintained a 3.7 grade point average and was a part of the AVID program that includes AP and Pre-AP classes.

Angel Ward was selected for the Dell Scholars Program and she received a $20,000 scholarship from the Michael & Susan Dell Foundation. The program awards scholarships each year to individuals who demonstrate their desire and ability to overcome barriers and achieve goals. Angel was also awarded a $15,000 Linda Lorelle Scholarship.

When asked about her feelings toward the Harbor, Angel said “The Harbor has changed me”.

Angel went on to study at San Jacinto College and Blinn College and is currently employed in Kemah.
